Commodores Corner, October 2008

Winter was sneaking up on us, then a 60-degree weekend. Who would have thought, it's almost November and it's this warm. I know the OGYC sailors who are still competing are enjoying the weather. Our sailors are still out there and doing well. More on that later in the newsletter

Last weekend the OGYC Executive Board met and discussed the 2009 schedule among other things. As with any organization there are always a few people that work hard holding it all together. We are fortunate to have our core group to do that work for all of us. We would sure like to have your help and urge you all to get more involved as there are always interesting and fun things to do. You don't know unless you give it a try.

There is an active winter season that has already started. A good crowd was on hand to kick-off the winter social calendar at the Turkey Dinner / Change of Command / Memorial Service Nite. I have to thank Phyllis Rebmann and Eileen King for heading up this early Thanksgiving event. Linda and I enjoyed the time with our friends at the Club and look forward to the next event just a few weeks away on November 8. Stay tuned.

Check the calendar, every month through the winter. The Saturday near of the middle weekend has been targeted for a get together. The following Sunday morning is always an Executive Board meeting. The first couple of months have had adjustments due to rentals but we are still shooting for the middle weekend. Check the website for scheduling: OGYC.NET.

Past Commodore John King is organizing the schedule for the coming year. Al Dameika will get the word on the website and Phyllis Rebmann is getting the word out to the members with the newsletter that is also on the website. Those without email get a paper copy. Please let us know about email changes or if you don't have email. We want you to know what's going on.

A tentative calendar is in place but needs input from a few of our committees to be completed. I am looking forward to a great 100th year for OGYC. We have some great committees and some great surprises in store for you in 2009. Hope to see you all soon at some of our winter social events.

Commodore, Riley Applegate

Sailing -The sailing committee will not be meeting until January but they have already received at least one resume for sailing instructor.

Ocean Gate Yacht Club again had good representation at the Beachwood Yacht Club Fall Series. Participating were Amy Voss, Brianna Dittenhofer, Trace Dittenhofer, Alan Dittenhofer, Charlie Nunn, Dean Genakos, Tyler Nice, Dylan Froriep, Jeffrey Proko and Nicholas Tremitedi.

I believe we have sailors participating in Frostbite Series.

Social- The turkey dinner went well, with a good variety of food. I thank everyone who helped with this in any way.

SOUP'S ON! November 8th, 6PM.

Hearty Homemade Soup, Fresh Bread, Caesar Salad, Homemade Dessert

Cost is $12 for adults, $10 if you RSVP by Nov. 1st. Kids are $3.

RSVP to Donnalee and Jay at 732 269-4032 or donnaleejay@aol.com.

There is a social calendar, some tentative and some confirmed, until September 2009. Al Dameika is going to publish it on OGYC.net and keep it updated monthly. Take a look at it and see what you are interested in helping with. There are probably a few open dates if you have a good idea for an event that you would like to chair.

I will continue to publish the details in the newsletter as far ahead as I have them. Keep these dates in mind.

December 13th will be our Christmas Party chaired by Donnalee and Jay Snyder.

January 10th will be the chili night with Donnalee and Jay co-coordinating it.

If there is an event that you would like to help with contact either John King or the chairperson for that event.

For some of our larger events next year we may be hiring bartenders. This is something that has been talked about for a long time and we have been trying to avoid but it may become inevitable. We will still be looking for volunteers for other events.

Building and Grounds-We are contracting with the company that did the dredging last year to do it again this year.

Hopefully before next summer we will find a solution to the air conditioning inadequacy. The executive board decided to have a professional evaluation done to determine exactly what we need.

There is apparently an area of the walkway out to the dock that is very bumpy which is a potential hazard. Leveling that is another project.

We are still looking for a Chairperson for building and grounds.

Docks-It is almost November and that means time to get all the boats out of the water and off the beach. Most of them are gone.

Membership- No new members this month.

Personal news-On October 12th Joey Mastronardy, former sailor and son/stepson of Rosemary and Paul married the love of his life, Kelly Somers.

If you have any news for next month please get it to me by November 20th.
